Assumptions Underlying Forecasts of Management Status for Fiscal Period Ending July 2017

Item	Assumption
Fiscal period	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fiscal period ending July 2017 (from February 1, 2017 to July 31, 2017) (181 days)</li> </ul>
Managed assets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>It is assumed that Samty Residential will continue to own the real estate or the trust beneficiary interests in real estate for 49 properties it owns as of today through the end of the fiscal period ending July 2017, and that no other property will be newly acquired.</li> <li>In practice, change may arise due to acquisition of new properties or disposition of owned properties, etc.</li> </ul>
Operating revenue	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Real estate rent revenue is calculated on the basis of historical data and by taking into account the status of leasing.</li> <li>Operating revenue is based on the assumption that there will be no accrual of gain or loss on sales of real estate properties.</li> </ul>
Operating expenses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Expenses related to the rent business, which are the principal operating expenses, are calculated on the basis of past results of Samty Residential (or the past results disclosed by the previous owners, etc. for the periods for which Samty Residential does not have past results), taking into account the fluctuation factors of expenses.</li> <li>Real estate rent income (excluding gain on sales of real estate properties) after deducting expenses related to the rent business (including depreciation) is assumed to be 809 million yen.</li> <li>Depreciation is calculated using the straight line method, and is assumed to be 436 million yen.</li> <li>The property taxes and city planning taxes, etc. to be recorded as expenses are assumed to be 117 million yen. Although the property taxes and city planning taxes, etc. for the properties acquired in August 2016 are not recorded as expenses in the fiscal period ended January 2017, 46 million yen is assumed to be recorded as expenses in the fiscal period ending July 2017. The amount is equivalent to 6 months of assumed annual property taxes and city planning taxes, etc. of newly acquired properties</li> <li>Repair expenses for buildings are assumed to be 17 million yen, based on the medium- to long-term repair plans prepared by the asset management company. However, the amounts could differ significantly from the assumed figures, as increased or additional repair expenses may arise due to unpredictable factors.</li> </ul>
Non-operating expenses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Interest expenses and other borrowing related expenses are assumed to be 140 million yen for the period ending July 2017.</li> <li>Expenses for issuance of investment corporation bonds are assumed to be 3 million yen.</li> <li>Investment unit issuance expenses are assumed to be 4 million yen.</li> </ul>
Interest-bearing liabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Interest-bearing liabilities due for repayment during the fiscal period ending July 2017 subsequent to the date of this document are assumed to be financed through refinancing the entire amount, and the balance of interest-bearing liabilities is assumed to be 28,750 million yen.</li> </ul>
Investment units	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The total number of investment units issued and outstanding is assumed to be 283,000 units, which is the figure as of today.</li> <li>It is assumed that there will be no change in the number of investment units due to issuance of new investment units, etc. through the end of the fiscal period ending July 2017.</li> </ul>
Distribution per unit (excluding distribution in excess of earnings)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Distribution per unit (excluding distribution in excess of earnings) is calculated on the assumption that the amount of earnings is distributed pursuant to the cash distribution method stipulated in Samty Residential's Articles of Incorporation.</li> <li>There is the possibility that the distribution per unit (excluding distribution in excess of earnings) may vary due to various factors, including changes of managed assets, variation in real estate rental revenue in accordance with changes of tenants, and occurrence of unpredicted repairs.</li> </ul>

Distribution in excess of earnings per unit	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Distribution in excess of earnings per unit is calculated pursuant to the cash distribution method stipulated in Samty Residential's Articles of Incorporation as well as the asset management company's internal regulations.</li> <li>• As of today, Samty Residential believes that no significant deterioration is likely to take place for the current external economic environment, the real estate market conditions and Samty Residential's financial conditions.</li> <li>• Samty Residential anticipates that there will be ample opportunities, etc. to acquire new properties as investments that should contribute to increasing portfolio earnings power in the fiscal period ending July 2017, although part of the real estate transaction market appears to be overheated. Accordingly, it is highly necessary to reserve certain amounts of funds to make it possible to respond to such opportunities flexibly. On the other hand, in consideration of such factors as Samty Residential's financial conditions and the prospect of its ability to refinance interest-bearing liabilities, Samty Residential considers itself to not be in a position in the said fiscal period to allocate funds preferentially for reinforcing its financial base through such measures as reducing interest-bearing liabilities. While depreciation for acquired assets (49 properties) is anticipated to be 436 million yen, the six-month average of the sum total of the estimated urgent repair expenses, estimated short-term repair expenses and estimated long-term repair expenses for the said 49 properties described in the building condition survey reports will be only 49 million yen. Accordingly, Samty Residential expects to have residual free cash flow even after making certain reserves from the cash and deposits on hand equivalent to the depreciation amount at the end of the said fiscal period as reserves for capital expenditures (CAPEX) to maintain the building functions, etc., as funds equivalent to the estimated amount of working capital, etc. and as reserves in preparation for investments that should contribute to increasing portfolio earnings power as stated above.</li> <li>• Considering the above, Samty Residential believes as of today that it is appropriate to implement distribution in excess of earnings for the fiscal period ending July 2017, and anticipates 147 million yen as total distribution in excess of earnings (Note). In this case, the payout ratios are anticipated to be 72.0%, and the total distribution in excess of earnings is anticipated to be equivalent to 33.8% of the depreciation expected to accrue in the said fiscal period.</li> </ul> (Note) Distribution in excess of earnings shall be implemented only when the total continuous appraisal value of the real estate properties owned by Samty Residential at the end of each fiscal periods (refers to the appraisal value indicated in the real estate appraisal reports or (the investigated value indicated in the valuation reports (appraised value at end of period)) obtained for the real estate properties owned by Samty Residential with the fiscal period end as the date of value; the same follows hereafter) is greater than the total adjusted book value of the owned real estate properties (refers to the book value of the respective owned real estate properties at the end of the fiscal period of Samty Residential, after deducting the amount equivalent to the incidental expenses upon acquisition of the owned real estate properties; the same follows hereafter) plus total reserves for the planned construction work amount (capital expenditures) of the repair and renewal expenses scheduled for the next fiscal period as well as other planned reserves. If these requirements are not satisfied, therefore, Samty Residential will not implement distribution in excess of earnings for the 4th fiscal period ending July 2017 despite the above forecast. Moreover, if any significant deterioration or other changes newly occur in the external economic environment, the real estate market conditions or Samty Residential's financial conditions, etc. or if any major changes, etc. in Samty Residential's financial conditions (including, but not limited to, LTV level and conflicts with financial covenants established for Samty Residential's borrowings) occur as a result of new borrowing of funds or issuance of investment corporation bonds in accompanying acquisition of new assets (including to-be-acquired assets), the policy as of today to implement distribution in excess of earnings for the 4th fiscal period ending July 2017 as part of the cash management may be changed and, despite the above forecast, distribution in excess of earnings may not be implemented for the 4th fiscal period ending July 2017. In addition, Samty Residential, in pursuant to the cash management policy, has a policy to determine every fiscal period whether to implement distribution in excess of earnings with target payout ratio (the ratio of total cash distribution, including distribution in excess of earnings, to net income and depreciation combined) of around 70% and up to the amount equivalent to 35% of depreciation in the fiscal period. Samty Residential believes as of today that it is appropriate to implement distribution in excess of earnings for the 4th fiscal period ending July 2017 with payout ratio of 72.0% and the amount equivalent to 33.8% of depreciation. However, such an amount or percentage may be reviewed if there newly arises a major change in the revenue and expense structure of the portfolio due to significant additions of new assets, etc. or important changes take place in the financial environment and the real estate investment trust market conditions, etc. As a result, the amount of distribution in excess of earnings for the 4th fiscal period ending July 2017 as anticipated above may be changed.
Other	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• It is assumed that there will be no revision to laws and regulations, tax system, accounting standards, regulations applying to publicly listed companies and rules of The Investment Trusts Association, Japan, etc. that will impact the aforementioned forecast figures.</li> <li>• It is also assumed that there will be no unexpected material changes in general economic trends and real estate market conditions, etc.</li> </ul>
